Fixing a Minimum Wage of 67-1/2 Cents per Hour to the "Leather Glove Division"

Upon consideration of the petition submitted on July 26, 1956, by the Atlas Products Corporation, under Section 7(e) of Act No. 96 of June 1956 (Minimum Wage Act of Puerto Rico), and after the corresponding study of the industry required by Law, the Minimum Wage Board of Puerto Rico, under the authority conferred by Section 7(h) of the Law, hereby fixes a minimum wage of 67-1/2 cents per hour to the "machine operations and any operations known to the industry as cutting, laying off, sizing, banding, and boxing" covered by the federal wage order in force since June 6, 1955, applicable then to the "Leather Glove Division" of the Needlework and Fabricated Textile Products Industry.

Approved in San Juan, Puerto Rico, on December 13, 1956.
