#428

Cuando me hice cargo de los reglamentos faltaban 4, uno de los cuales era éste. Los otros eran el 19, 20, y 498.

He sacado copia fotostática de todos ellos de la obra Reglas y Reglamentos

---

§ 135–228. Appendices

The plans prepared by each of the departments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the Government of Puerto Rico and of its municipalities, as well as the plans prepared and submitted by the Red Cross, shall, in the form of appendices, become a part of the aggregate herein presented.

Text references. The appendices mentioned in this section were not filed with this regulation.

DIVISION 4. COORDINATION OF EXECUTIVE FUNCTIONS

SECTIONS

135–301. Powers of Director of Civil Defense
135–302. Use of agencies of Government

§ 135–301. Powers of Director of Civil Defense

The Director of Civil Defense in Puerto Rico shall have the following powers and shall prescribe the corresponding instructions and orders:

(1) The powers and authority conferred upon the Governor by sec. 6 of the Act, subsec. (b), paragraph (2) [25 L.P.R.A. § 135(b)(2)], for the preparation of a plan and general program for the Puerto Rico Civil Defense, integrating and coordinating the said plan and program, as far as possible and suitable, with the plans of the Civil Defense of the Federal Government and of the states of the Union; and coordinating the preparation of plans and programs for the Civil Defense in the municipalities and in the Capital of the Commonwealth, integrating and coordinating the said plans, as far as it is possible and suitable, with the plan and program of the Puerto Rico Civil Defense.

(2) The powers and authority conferred upon the Governor by sec. 6, subsec. (b), paragraph (3) [25 L.P.R.A. § 135(b)(3)], to carry on any practice of Civil Defense, including direction and control of the following:

(A) Black-outs, air raid drills, mobilization of Civil Defense forces, and any other drills or exercises.

(B) Notices and drills of attacks, and means to be used for carrying them out.

(C) Putting into effect a plan which will guarantee the means to have all lights out or covered in the community.

(D) Making sure all bypass valves of aqueducts, gas tanks, and electric energy are off, and stopping all public services and utilities.

(E) Regulating the conduct to be observed by the citizens and the transit of pedestrians and motor vehicles, before, during and immediately after the attack drill or in case of enemy attack.

(F) Providing means for the evacuation of the civil population from certain areas and for their lodging in previously indicated places.

(3) The powers and authority conferred upon the Governor by sec. 6, subsec. (b), paragraph (5) [25 L.P.R.A. § 135(b)(5)], to use the existing services and facilities of the offices and agencies of the Government of Puerto Rico, and of its political subdivisions. All these agencies and offices shall cooperate and shall render their services and facilities when so required by the Director of the Puerto Rico Civil Defense.

(4) The Director of the Puerto Rico Civil Defense may delegate the powers specified in paragraph (2) of this section to the assistant directors of the Puerto Rico Civil Defense and on the local or municipal director of Civil Defense.

(5) Shall have the power to exercise the authority conferred upon the Governor of Puerto Rico, according to sec. 6, subsec. (b), paragraph (9) [25 L.P.R.A. § 135(b)(9)], to obtain, through the Federal Civil Defense Administration, equipment, materials, services, and supplies to carry on the provisions of the aforementioned Act, in accordance with the regulations established for this purpose by the Secretary of the Treasury of Puerto Rico; also, to make and enter into pacts and agreements with the Federal Civil Defense Director in regard to the time, manner, and payment of these acquisitions.

Source. §§ 135-301 and 135-302: Administrative Bulletin No. 65, An Executive Order Regarding the Coordination of Executive Functions in Case of Disaster, promulgated by Governor Aug. 3, 1953. Filed with Secretary of State Sept. 28, 1957; File No. 428.

Authority. Act May 1, 1951, No. 183, p. 434, § 6; 25 L.P.R.A. § 135.

Text references. Act referred to in text is Act May 1, 1951, No. 183; 25 L.P.R.A. §§ 130-146.

Codification. "Island" was changed to "Commonwealth" pursuant to the Constitution.

Explanatory note. Regulation File No. 428, set out in this Division, contained the following statement:

"As a means of ensuring a greater protection and a more efficient and complete assistance service for the people of Puerto Rico, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Honorable Luis Muñoz Marín, has issued the following Executive Order, whereby the Civil Defense is entrusted with the mission of coordinating the executive functions of the different Government departments and agencies during any kind of disaster."

§ 135–302. Use of agencies of Government

In case of disaster the following provisions are to be observed in order to get the best use of the personnel, the means, and the facilities belonging to the departments, agencies, authorities, bureaus, and offices of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico:

(1) There shall be an organization prepared beforehand to provide for the rendering of essential services with a minimum of personnel, means, and facilities.

(2) Once the above provision has been fulfilled, plans and the necessary preparations shall be made to use all available personnel, means, and facilities in the rehabilitation, reconstruction, and help of the community.

(3) The Director of Civil Defense shall coordinate the plans and preparations to govern in case of disaster of each department, authority, agency, bureau, or office of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico with the plans of the Puerto Rico Civil Defense.

Subchapter 136. Emergency Powers; Plans and Standards in Case of War

SECTIONS

136-1. Generally

§ 136–1. Generally

General note. Civil Defense regulation entitled "Plans and Standards in Case of War", promulgated by the Director of Civil Defense, filed with Secretary of State Sept. 28, 1957, File No. 428, is available in the office of the Director of Civil Defense and in the office of the Secretary of State.